

Free one day event

Thursday 5 July 2018

UCL - Institute of Child Health

London, WC1N 1EH

Registration: 08.30 - 09.20

Event: 09.20 - 16.00

Follow us at @NHSResolution
#mentalhealthmatters

CPD approved event

Mental health matters - Learning from the frontline

Improving safety in the acute care setting for those in mental health crisis

- Interactive panel debate with leading clinical NHS experts, the police, Care Quality Commission (CQC), patients and legal experts reflecting and offering solutions
- Navigating safe clinical handover under section 136 Mental Health Act and Mental Capacity Act within the emergency department – criminal and common law guidance available to clinical staff
- Interactive workshops from patient, family, staff and NHS partners' perspectives

8.30 am	Registration & refreshments - browse poster competition and stands: Papyrus, Samaritans and Thrive LDN
9:20 am	Welcome & National Perspective	Chair Mr Alex Ruck - Keene Barrister of 39 Essex Chambers
		The role of NHS Resolution: Bringing mental health into focus Ian Adams , Director of Membership and Stakeholder Engagement, NHS Resolution Dr Alice Oates , Clinical Fellow in Mental Health, NHS Resolution
9:40 am	Sharing observations	Learning from two scenarios involving self-harm, suicide ideation, risk management and multi-agency communication in the emergency department. Presented by Charles Feeny , Barrister, Mediator and Legal Analyst, Complete Counsel with audience reflections
10:30 am	Whose patient is this?	The reality of working in a challenging NHS system while navigating policy and the law. Specialist panel debate <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Dr Alice Ashby, Liaison Psychiatry Consultant, South London and Maudsley NHS Foundation Trust • Dr Adrian Boyle, Emergency Department Consultant, Cambridge University Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust • Michael Brown, Police Inspector • Dr John Byrne, Executive Medical Director, Humber NHS Foundation trust • Carly Lynch, Mental Health Lead, London Ambulance Service • Nadia Persaud, Her Majesty's Senior Coroner for the Eastern Area of Greater London • Mr Charles Feeny Barrister, Mediator and Legal Analyst, Complete Counsel • Sabrina Kamayah, Regulatory Policy Officer, Mental Health Policy Team, CQC
11.20 am	Refreshments – vote for poster competition and view third sector stands

11:45 am	Intra-agency working: the universal challenge	Two interactive presentations: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A focus on the learning following tragic outcomes contributed to by inadequate intra-agency working, limited family involvement and misinterpretation of the law • The legal and practical challenges in using compulsory powers to secure patient care and treatment in Emergency Department Jane Quinn, Associate Director of Consumer Relations and Legal Affairs, East London NHS Foundation Trust Francis Lyons, Partner, Capsticks Dr Saj Malhi, Consultant Psychiatrist, South London and Maudsley NHS Foundation Trust
1:00 pm	Reflections – working differently	Rob Tobin , Partner, Kennedys Law
1:10 pm	Lunch and networking - vote for poster competition and view third sector stands
Afternoon session - Triangle of care Attendees will be able to select two of the following sessions
2.00 pm	The patient perspective	The family perspective	The staff perspective
	Learning disabilities in the acute environment key points around: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Managing patients in the emergency department – what patients want • Better care healthier lives 	Involving families <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Family guidance from NHS England • Parents share their experience following the loss of their son 	Supporting staff after serious incidents and assault <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ways of implementing a ‘Just Culture’. • Prospective learning
	Jim Blair Consultant Nurse Learning Disability, Great Ormond Street NHS. and Associate Professor Learning Disability Kingston & St Georges Hospital Lloyd Page Learning Disability Champion	Angela Middleton Patient Safety Lead for Mental Health (London), NHS England Dr Lisa Edwards (Parent) Dr Peter Gill (Parent)	Dr Arun Chidambaram Deputy Medical Director, Mersey Care NHS Foundation Trust. Dr Gordon King Deputy Director of Mental Health, Learning Disability and Specialty Services, Northamptonshire Healthcare NHS Foundation Trust
2.25 pm	Transition
2.30 pm	Breakout session repeat
2.55 pm	Transition
3.05 pm	‘An Inspector calls’	An update from the CQC on their new policy relating to mental health in the emergency department – top takeaways for safe excellent care Sabrina Kamayah, Regulatory Policy Officer, Mental Health Policy Team Victoria Hart, Inspector, Hospitals Inspection Directorate, Mental Health
3:45 pm	Reflections and summary of day. Poster competition winner announcement
4:00 pm	Close

For more details and registration visit: <http://bit.ly/MentalHealthEventLondon>

© NHS Resolution 2018
www.resolution.nhs.uk